

JUNGLE COMBAT GLOVES

DESCRIPTION and USE

Designed for use by military personnel from infantry through to Special Forces, this glove offers high levels of comfort, dexterity and protection. Made with a amara synthetic leather palm and a stretch camouflage fabric back, the palm offers excellent abrasion, puncture and tear resistance thus increasing the durability and longevity of the garment by preventing wear on contact surfaces and materials. Reinforcement on the palm and thumb is provided by an additional layer of digital cowhide leather designed to provide excellent levels of grip and impact protection. The back of the hand is made from a stretch fabric with an integrated molded hard knuckle. A neoprene cuff with an adjustable Velcro strap prevents the ingress of debris ensures a firm closure on the hand. and pull cord nylon webbing loops at the wrist assist with rapid donning and doffing of the garment.
